Rome, April 6 (By A. P.).-Fascist Italy has decided to try to replace what is termed here the "Wilsonian Method" what is termed the "Mussolinian Method."

This conclusion was drawn in political circles tonight from the text of the Paris, April 6 (By A. P.).—One cruiser, six destroyers, five submarines, one mine laying submarine and two dispatch vessels will be built by France between July 1, 1927, and June 30, 1928, under a bill signed yesterday by President Doumergue. The vessels belong to the second section of France's naval program.

These are, first, that the treaty contains no provisions for registration with the League of Nations; second, that it reopens the path for the official restoration of "secret diplomacy," and, third, that it renders remote any ultimate recourse to the international court at The Hague for settlement of international disputes.

Durant Back on the Job

Of Interest to Star Dealers,

Stockholders of Durant Motors, Inc. and to the Public:

N order that I may devote my entire time to the extensive project to which d in line with my I am committe announced intentio. . . ow that my health is restored) of re-engaging actively in motor affairs, every other interest secondary thereto, I am this day resigning the following honorary positions: Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Liberty National Bank in New York; Director and Member of the Executive Committee of the Petroleum Heat and Fuel Company; Director of Loew's, Incorporated; Director of the American Safety Razor Company; Director of the Independent Oil and Gas Company, and a number of others of lesser importance.

As this will no doubt be a surprise to my associates, I wish to say that my investment holdings in these various enterprises will for the time being at least, remain undisturbed.

FOR many months past maliciously false statements have been circulated affecting the credit of the companies producing the Star Car, the object being to discourage dealers from taking on the line and to frighten prospective customers from considering this most worthy product. While these producing companies are perfectly sound and need no guarantee, in the interest of Star Dealers who have during all this time been attempting to combat this insidious propaganda (a most discouraging task), I here and now pledge my entire personal fortune, guaranteeing not only the financial responsibility of these companies, but the stability of policies and the integrity of the management as well.

It is self evident that without an efficient dealer organization with a dependable outlet for its product, factories cannot properly function, and my plans for the future which am briefly outlining as promised, have much to do with a well considered program, which program, greatly to the interest of Star Dealers and to the benefit of the Stockholders of Durant Motors, Inc., as well, I sponsor and intend to maintain at my own expense.

Apropos of the foregoing-

THE sale of automobiles on the much-discussed deferred payment or installment plan is today a most important factor and is largely responsible for the wonderful development of the motor industry in this country. Many plans are in vogue-some good, but all, when the customary charges are considered, very expensive. In the interest of Star Dealers my plan contemplates a revolving fund of no inconsiderable amount, which I have set aside for the purpose of financing the sale of Star Cars on a deferred payment contract, the entire cost to the purchaser amounting to an interest charge on deferred payments at the rate of six per cent per annum-all other charges, including fire and theft insurance, to be borne by me.

These obligations will be known as Approved Acceptance Contracts, protected by a proper initial payment, the balance of the purchase price evidenced by six deferred payments of equal amount. In plain language, the cost to the purchasers of Star Cars on the Approved Acceptance Contract plan is approximately onethird of the present prevailing rates.

In the interest of Star Dealers my plan further contemplates setting aside for their benefit a considerable block of Durant Motors, Inc., stock purchased in the open market, the profits on this stock computed at the end of each year to be distributed to Star dealers based upon pre-arranged schedules and results obtained. There is to be no money investment or obligation on the part of the dealer under this arrangement.

Many curious people will be pleased to know why these unusual personal contributions and this great interest in Star dealers. The answer—Anything that will improve the condition of Star dealers will benefit the Stockholders of Durant Motors, Inc.

And if these same curious people should want to know what most concerns me at this moment-

My answer— That the name Durant shall stand for something better than a foot-ball in Wall Street.

But why the Star to the exclusion of all others in the Durant group?

Because the New Star Six, a brand new creation shown for the first time today, is the greatest automobile with which I have ever been identified.

And, by the way, the new Star Six has been selected as the nucleus around which Consolidated Motors, Inc. is being built, exactly as the Buick in 1908 was used as the nucleus and the keystone of the great General Motors.

London, April 6 (By A. Then, after a pause, he said slowly mid solemnly:

"Great Britain is not prepared to be ustiled out of China."

His statement drew cheers from the onservative benches, after which he ontinued: "Nor are we prepared to ithdraw our nationals from Shanghai aid other up-country places or be reated as though they had no right to that which is theirs by treaty and as abough the lives of Britishers were of account to the British government."

He gave details and further instances of reported looting and outrages on hospitals and other buildings and said it would be a mistake to suppose that these attacks were confined to the British as the forces which Chinese agitators had aroused were directed against foreigners indiscriminately.

MacDonald Opens Debate.

Debate on the Chinese situation was opened by Ramsay MacDonald, the labor leader and former premier, who declared that the sending of troops to Shanghai had considerably increased Great Britain's difficulties in negotiating with the Chinese and had not increased the security of British lives outside of Shanghai.

Mr. MacDonald asserted that no one could honestly say exactly what had happened at Nanking without making an investigation, and he strongly urged that the Nanking situation be approached by the inquiry method.

Advocating calling on the League of Nations to smooth out the difficulties in China, he declared that the only way to remove/Chinese distrust of Debate on the Chinese situation was

After Sir Austen had made his reply, various laborites expressed their views in opposition to the government's policy. Then former Premier David Liloyd George, the liberal leader, arose and remarked that Sir Austen's task was difficult and that he and his friends had no desire to embarrass the lent. sions in view of the pending note or negotiations on the Shanghai incident.

SACASA DEFEATED.

The Nicaraguan army forces have badly defeated the revolutionists and taken two important towns, besides occupying a commanding position from which to deliver the final stroke to Sacasa's dwindling forces. The revolutionists have not been in a position to obtain arms or supplies from Mexico in sufficient quantities to cope with the augmented strength of the government forces. The Sacasa mercenaries are reported to be deserting his cause on account of the lack of pay and shortage of

No doubt the Calles government has found it impossible to furnish the money necessary to continue the campaign in Nicaragua. The Mexican regime is hard pressed for funds with which to meet its own revolution, and it can not be expected to maintain the hopeless struggle in Nicaragua. Without help from Mexico Sacasa is powerless. His flight from Puerto Cabezas to Mexico, leaving his forces in the lurch, may be looked for.

President Diaz of Nicaragua has only re cently been equipped sufficiently to take the offensive against the revolutionists. The terrain over which the forces are moving is very difficult, and small bands of revolutionists can easily hide. The revolutionary movement as a whole, however, is rapidly waning, and continued hardship and defeat will doubtless scatter the bands that are still in the field.

PIGS FOR GREECE.

Col. Broadcaster, accompanied by an important delegation, is on the high seas bound for Europe. Representatives of the State of New York and the State of New Jersey, and officials of the Near East Relief and of Columbia university were on hand to bid him goodby and Godspeed. Cameras clicked, speeches were made and prayers were said, for Col. Broadcaster, aristocratic, well-bred, well-fed, blue-blooded, pampered and pedigreed porker, headed thirteen other thoroughbred pigs destined to restore to Greece pigs' knuckles pork chops and ham.

Since the war Greece has had difficulty trying to restore her supply of foodstuffs. Vast quantities of relief supplies have been consigned from the United States to the Hellenic shores. Lately, however, the idea has gradually taken form that, in addition to immediate relief, it is necessary to rehabilitate Greece to the point where she can support herself. The hog shipment is along this line of reasoning.

The American pig pioneers are as fine as any ever raised in the country. All were donated by pig fanciers, and chosen with the idea in mind that they are to become the ancestors of the Grecian hog-raising industry They will be received at Athens by American farm experts, and escorted with ceremony to the Greek state agricultural farm. There they will be permitted to grow into hogs, and subsequently made available for breeding.

LABOR LEGISLATION IN BRITAIN.

The British administration, being under a solemn obligation and pledge to introduce legislation dealing with general strikes and the political activities of trade unions, has brought into the house of commons a bill which is supposed to meet the situation, and which has already, as a matter of course, passed the formal and innocuous stage of its first reading. The publication of the text of the measure has produced various reactions which, taken in the aggregate, give promise of a violent and bitter debate, when the parliamentary discussion of it begins in earnest after the Easter recess

As usual, the conservative politicians, as well as the large employers, who are mainly conservative, are divided in opinion. Some of them welcome the bill as tending to put an end to conditions which they regard as intolerable: others consider that it is not sufficiently drastic in its provisions or inclusive enough in its scope. The liberals are generally unfavorable to the bill, because they believe that it will disturb industrial relations, but many of them must in their heart of hearts rejoice at the prospect which it opens up, as Sir Herbert Samuel did publicly in a speech at Manchester a week or two ago, when he declared that in this matter the Baldwin administration was embarking on a policy likely to increase its decline in the public estimation.

It is, however, the effect of the proposed legislation on the laborites that promises to have the most important results. That party was badly split into two elements, the moderates, typified by J. H. Thomas, and the radicals or communists, typified by A. J. Cook and fame. those who go under the general designation of there was a bitter internecine war in their respective struggles for control of the labor vote in Britain. Now, however, under impact from the outside, they are likely to close up their ranks and present a solid front in opposition said: "If ever the government did anything to unite all sections of the labor movement, they have done it now;" and he was indorsed by Ramsay MacDonald, who said that the trade union bill is "the most aggressive declaration of class war that has been made in our time." and by A. J. Cook, who stigmatized it as a 'declaration of war on the whole labor move

The temper roused by the measure now be fore the house of commons was well illustrated at a joint meeting of the parliamentary labor party and of the Trade Union Congress, when the whole of the resources of these respective bodies were pledged "to fight the government's proposal to the bitter end."

It is evident that passions will be inflamed to a high pitch and that the administration will have to weather fierce storms before it can pass its trade union bill into law.

AMERICAN INVESTMENTS ABROAD.

American investments abroad are increasing rather than decreasing. According to the De partment of Commerce they increased 72 per cent during the first three months of 1927, as compared with the first three months of 1926. Foreign securities purchased by American investors during the first quarter of 1927 amounted to more than $360,715,000, against $209,762,000 in the first quarter of 1926.

American money invested in foreign securi ies at the end of the first quarter of 1927 totaled $11,900,000,000, divided as follows: $3,200,000,000 in Europe, $4,700,000,000 in Latin America, $3,100,000,000 in Canada and $900,000,000 in Asia and the rest of the world

Investments of American capital have increased in Latin-American countries and in Italy, while loans to Germany have declined. borrowed $78,400,000, of which $30, 000,000 went to the city of Rome, the remainder going to industrial corporations. More than $141,682,000 was invested in Latin-American countries during the first quarter of 1927. This was 40 per cent of the total in vested in that period.

During the year 1926 government or municipal investments predominated largely. In the first quarter of 1927 the percentage of government securities decreased and the percentage of industrial corporate investments increased.

American private holdings of foreign securities, both government and corporate or industrial, now exceed foreign war debts to the United States. There is a marked and important difference between the two classes of investments. Private investments are sold at less than par and yield from 7 to 8 per cent, often more, and run from ten to twenty years, while government investments bring from 2 to 3 per cent and run 62 years.

The combined private and government in vestments of the United States in foreign countries total more than $21,000,000,000. If this could be collected it would more than pay the entire public debt of the United States and wipe out an annual charge against our taxpayers of something like $800,000,000 or

The United States is borrowing money from the American people at 4 and 4 1/2 per cent, while foreign governments and industrials are borrowing money from the American people at 7 to 8 per cent or more. American private investors expect payment of their foreign investments in from ten to twenty years, while the United States government expects payment of its foreign investments in full 62 years

These foreign loans are the basis of the insistent demand by foreigners for reduction of the American tariff and for cancellation or readjustment of the war debts. Many Americans are deceived by the foreign arguments, and are actually convinced that the United States would profit by opening its market to foreign traders in competition with home industry and agriculture

SQUELCHING INDECENCY.

A New York court has found guilty 22 individuals and a corporation charged with presenting a play tending to corrupt the morals The defendants will be sentenced on April 19, the law providing punishment of not less than 10 days nor more than a year or not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 fine, or both, for each of them.

This is the second victory for the district attorney, who a month or so ago announced his determination to bring the criminal code into play to gain control of the New York stage. About the middle of last month conviction was obtained in a similar case, and the authors and coproducers received jail sentences and fines, the sentences of the cast having been suspended by the judge. sympathy need be felt for these purveyors of indecency. Certain producers have continued to bring forth plays which, by catering to a depraved minority, brought a flow of gold to the box office. The entire community suffered, and it was vitally necessary that strong action should be taken. The picture of police censorship and criminal prosecution is not pretty. Nevertheless, it is far superior to that of a theater turned over to obscenity. New York is fortunate in having a strong district attorney, who has the courage to carry through the disagreeable job.

IN HALL OF FAME AT LAST.

It is only a coincidence that the Atlantic fleet will be anchored on May 5 in the North river, New York, opposite University Heights, where rises Manhattan's hall of fame. That is the day agreed upon for the placing in the hall and the unveiling of the bust of Admiral Farragut, whose fame as a naval officer is unsurpassed by that of any other American. More than 140 ships, comprising battleships, cruisers, destroyers, airplane carriers, sabmarines, and chasers are now headed northward and will drop anchor in New York at just the right time to add eclat to the ceremonies that will attend the unveiling. It is expected that the affair will be marked by the presence of every navy officer of command rank who may be on duty in the East at the time, as well as all those now living who served during the civil war, wherein Admiral Farragut won his

The placing of the bust in the hall of fame Between these two factions in 1927 is another evidence of the long time required in a republic to discover the qualities of men who have distinguished themselves in that their unconquerable spirits will yet "find the making of history. #### CUBA'S PROROGUE BILL.

The people of Cuba are agitated over the proposal to extend the present terms of the president, senators and representatives. A bill called the "prorogue bill" has passed the house of representatives and is expected to pass the senate and receive executive approval, notwithstanding growing popular opposition. Under its provisions the term of the president would be extended from its present length of six years to eight years, giving President Machado four more years of power: The terms of senators would be extended to twelve years, and the terms of representatives to eight years. In the meantime no elections would be held.

The argument advanced in behalf of this proposed suspension of popular suffrage is that elections in Cuba give rise to disorders and dangers of revolution. The objections to it are, of course, that the present administration is seeking to perpetuate its power and that, if the precedent is once made, elections will be suspended hereafter at the pleasure of any party that happens to be in power. The advocates of the prorogue bill insist that Cuba is in bad shape economically and that President Machado should have a free hand to complete his reform policies without the disturbance and uncertainty of a national election.

Appeals have been made to the United States to exert its influence against the proposed legislation. Ambassador Crowder is said to have advised against its enactment. No comment appears to have been made by President Coolidge or Secretary Kellogg on this subject, but it is expected that the matter will be discussed when President Machado visits Washington this month.

RULES FOR DUCK HUNTERS.

Under the amended bird treaty act new regulations designed for the protection of migratory birds have been approved by President Coolidge and promulgated by Secretary Jardine for the information of sportsmen.

The section of the new regulations that will be of most interest to Washington gunners prohibits the use of sink boxes in the inland waters of the country, which in the past have been used as covers for duck hunters in the Potomac and the Chesapeake bay as well as in the Susquehanna in the vicinity of Havre de Grace. It has been found that the use of sink boxes in the comparatively restricted resting and feeding grounds on inland waters has an injurious effect in driving ducks from such areas.

Under restrictions the use of sink boxes will still be permitted on coastal waters, although the new regulations require that each box be 700 yards from any shore or island and 700 yards from any other box. The effect of the change in the regulations will be to curtail the activities of pot-hunters.

Other changes of interest to local sportsmen in a lesser degree are those which reduce the number of woodcock that may be taken by each gunner to four instead of six, and that which provides a closed season of two years on greater and lesser yellowlegs. Which means that it will be unlawful to shoot any of the shore birds during this season and the next, except jacksnipe and woodcock, in the limited number which may be taken as above noted.

MOTOR CAR FATALITIES.

Since May, 1925, the Department of Commerce has been keeping careful record of the number of automobile fatalities monthly in 78 large cities of the United States. Varying between 350 and 675, the record has been fairly constant, the lowest total, 347, appearing during the four-week period ended March 27, 1926, and the highest, 676, during the fourweek period ended November 6, 1926. The first of this year the graph line was below that of the preceding year, and high hopes were entertained that the tide had turned and that fatalities would be fewer during 1927 than 1926. Almost immediately the line turned, however, until during the four-week period just ended there were 441 fatalities as compared with only 347 during the corresponding period of last year.

Washington follows the general tendency During the four-week period ended March 26. 1927, four fatalities were caused by automobile accidents, all of them within the city lim-During the corresponding period of last year there occurred but three fatalities, one of which was on the other side of the District line, but was chargeable to Washington. During the 52 weeks ended March 26, there have been 104 fatalities, of which 75 occurred within the District, giving a rate per 100,000 population of 19.7 for the total number, and 14.2 for those occurring only within the city limits. It is not a good showing.

At a recent meeting of the Atlantic shippers' advisory board, Secretary Hoover characterized the industrial accomplishments resulting from the cooperation between railway managers and shippers as one of the most outstanding examples of all time of the capacity of private ownership to solve its own problems. Almost coincident with the statement, the American Railway association publicly brought its records regarding car loadings up to date. For the third consecutive week the 1,000,000 car mark has been exceeded. During the week ended March 26, 2,027 more cars were loaded than during the preceding week, and 40,493 more than during the corresponding week of last year. The Roumanian royal orchestra, which will give a concert preceding the lecture by Dr. Anspacher at the Catton hotel at 11 o'clock this morning, is having a considerable vogue among Washing ton society circles this spring. Between the contest, and the added interest of the homemakers hour, and the increasing number of requests for recipes that come to this daily menu is to find its place in the scheme of things, for more and more frequently it is relegated to the discard in favor of specific questions to be answered. However, we have been together a year and a half, and if we sare unable to arrange a menu that has all that it should have by way of nourishment and well balanced vegetable proportions. I should indeed feel discouragement.

All New Trains--Parlor Car Comforts THE LAST WORD IN LUXURIOUS HIGH-SPEED TRANSPORTATION

Now, on the Washington-Baltimore Division of the W. B. & A., the First Articulated, Allsteel Interurban Electric Trains in America—Every 30 Minutes on the Hour and Half-hour

INK into one of the richly up-holstered chairs of the new W. B. & A. trains, open your book or paper or your favorite magazine and you are prepared for the quickest, the cleanest and the most comfortable trip you can make from downtown Washington to the heart of Baltimore—on the railroad that is electrified all the way.

At no increase in fare—the round trip is still $2.37*—the W. B. & A. now gives you the finest inter-city electric railroad trains in America; every train entirely new, designed and built for the W. B. & A., with the smooth riding comfort of "articulated" bodies, and the expensive appointments ordinarily found only in parlor cars.

What Articulation Means

From the outside, each of these new articulated trains looks like two long cars. Actually, each train is one very long unit, consisting of two car bodies mounted on three trucks instead of four. This means that noise, vibration, and the tendency of trains to sway when in rapid motion, are reduced to an absolute minimum. It means, also, that you can walk from one car to another in complete safety, steadiness and comfort, with no doors to open and no drafty, dusty vestibules to lurch through.

Each Double Seat Cost $125

At such a price, of course, you have truly

"the comforts of home"—individual seats, arranged in pairs; tastefully finished in twotone Frieze velours; deep springs in the base of every seat to absorb vibration; springs in the overstuffed cushions; easy backs-and room enough in front of you for the longest and weariest of legs.

There are wide, curtained windows of plate glass to give you abundant reading light by day, and shaded individual lights above each seat by night, thus giving you, day or night, freedom from glare or shadow.

Half the Train for Smokers

In each of these two-car trains, one car is for those who smoke and one for those who do not. And the smoking car is furnished with exactly the same luxurious appointments as the other car.

Another feature, which applies to each car, is the electric heating system, encased in steel, running the full length on each side of every car, with a thermostat control that keeps the cars, throughout the winter, from being either cold or uncomfortably warm.

In summer, the swift movement of the trains and more than 50 broad windows and 20 ventilators in each train will keep you cool even on the most humid of days.

Speed, Smoothness, Safety

The new Westinghouse 500 horse-power motors give the trains a free rolling speed of 60 miles an hour. So smooth is the acceleration, however, and so steady and rigid are the articulated bodies, that you do not realize the rate of speed at which you are traveling.

The steel frame construction of the cars, and the Westinghouse double airbrake system, which operates on all twelve wheels at once-"twelve-wheel brakes" they aregive you the utmost in modern railroad

The First in America

Naturally, we take some pride in the fact that the W. B. & A. is the first interurban electric railroad in America to give its passengers the remarkable comforts and conveniences of these high-speed, all-steel, articulated trains. It cost half a million dollars to build them and to provide them with these extraordinary facilities.

Now they are all in service—and every 30 minutes, on the hour and half hour, one of them leaves on an express schedule from Washington for Baltimore, and from Baltimore for Washington. We can truly say, therefore, to everyone who travels between these two cities-and particularly to those who, driving their automobiles, encounter parking troubles, traffic congestion and occasional breakdowns-that you can save both time and money—and ride in vastly greater comfort—by using these new trains of the W. B. &. A.

The full running time from down own Washington to downtown Baltimore on the W. B. & A. is only 85 minutes--the quickest, the most direct and the most economical way to make the trip! Street car lines at the Baltimore Terminal will take you or transfer you to any part of the city or suburbs. Taxicab stands maintained at terminals in both cities.

A song recital of much interest to Washington music lovers is that of Helen Howison, soprano, and Charlotte Harriman, contraito, to be given next Tuesday afternoon, April 12, at 4:30, in the ballroom of the Mayflower hotel.

During the present season, Miss Howison and Miss Harriman have been heard in many informal programs at the Congressional club, the Friday Morning club, the Kiwanis club and in Masonic circles. This will be their only appearance in formal recital until next season.

(The Glass of Life)

Brings health through your windows at last

OW the vital health rays, the cream of the sunshine, can enter your windows. Vita glass lets them in. These health-giving rays are stopped by ordinary glass as effectively as by a brick wall. Light and heat come through ordinary glass. But the ultra-violet rays, the most important life-promoting element of sun-

Vita glass, the discovery of F. E. Lamplough, M.A., Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, is the first commercial glass to bring this lost life and energy through your windows. These invisible rays ward off disease, increase energy, kill germs, help prevent and cure rickets in children, enrich the blood and promote general health. Your skin will tan through Vita glass. For Vita glass admits natural, unskimmed sunlight with its health-giving properties. And sunlight is perhaps the greatest single influence in securing and retaining health.

Vita glass is now available to every home, hospital, school or office building. t is ready for delivery in any quantity from stock in Philadelphia. Its cost is low enough to make it unreasonable to be without it. Vita glass has already been ordered for hotels, office buildings, many private homes, a long list of hospitals and sanatoria, and practically every type of building.

Write for important booklet

The story of Vita glass has been printed. It will be sent to you at your request. It tells of the long researches, the two-year tests, the final acceptance by physicians and hospitals, and its present success. Vita glass has passed the experimental stage. It is a tried and proved product. Write for this booklet today to Hires Turner Glass Co., Philadelphia, bonded distributors for Vitaglass Corporation. Telephone, West 2740.

Thousands of Children to March in Apple-Blossom Festival Pageant.

VETERANS TO BE GUESTS

Winchester, Va., April 6 (By A. P.).
The United States Navy band of 100 pieces, will lead the parade of "Human Buds" in the Shenandoah apple blossom festival here, which will probably be held during the week following Easter Sunday, those in charge of arranging the festival were advised today. The band will reach here on the first day of the festival, the date of which depends entirely on the weather and the condition of the blossoms and which will be set about a week before the event, and will remain through the third day.

The band will lead the march of the thousands of school children of Frederick and Clarke counties, Va., and Brunswick, Md., who will take part in the pageant celebrating the growth of the apple trade in Virginia. More than a dozen other bands also will participate in the festival, as will the cadet corps and bands of the Staunton Military academy, Fishburne Military school, Massanutten Military academy, Greenbrier Military academy, Greenbrier Military academy, Greenbrier Military academy, Greenbrier Military academy and Randolph-Macon academy.

A prominent part in the parade has been assigned to survivors of the Confederate army command known as "Mc-Neil's Rangers." The veterans, most of whom reside in Hardy county. W. Va., will come here in automobiles and will be escorted by 50 of their sons and grandsons, who will make the trip from West Virginia on horseback.

More than a dozen volunteer firemen's organizations from cities and towns in West Virginia, maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia, some with bands, also will take part in the festival.

"Lots Prettier"

How often you hear someone exclaim to a charming girl, "Oh! Your complexion's prettier than ever! What have you been doing for it?"
—and how many of these times nowadays the reply is like that of lovely Miss Dorothy Woodward 250 S. 55th St., Philadelphia, Pa. "Just using Black and White Cold Cream! My skin used to be so tender and dry it was easily irritated, but now it's soft and silky as a child's, even it's soft and silky as a child's, even in the coldest, windlest weather! It grows lots prettier every day I use this exquisitely textured cream!"

Chapping, rougheninng and wrinkling occur when the skin is abnormally dry, or the natural oils and moisture are whipped out by the weather. The soft, pure Cold Cream—bearing the Black and White label of highest quality and excellence—replaces these oils. lubricates and nourishes the skin and keeps it youthfully firm, smooth and lovely. You can get this dainty cream from dealers every-where for 50c and 25c.

Best results come from using Black and White Skin Soap along with the Black and White Beauty Creations.

Those who were fortunate enoug

Those who were fortunate enough to be present—an honor, indeed, because of the extreme intimacy of the theater, the house seating only 225 persons—were impressed both as to the arrangement for the comfort of the public and house atmosphere. Characterized as the first motion picture intimate theater outside of New York, the Little theater reflects the spirit of its creation. The interior, done an autumn brown, lends itself charmingly to the effect sought by the artist.

"Potemkin" has as its theme Russia under the carrist regime, projecting life conditions there through a cross section of naval life aboard his majesty's ship Potemkin. The plot is singu'arly cast in monotone, without relief from the insistence of the inhumanity of man toward his fellow man. It ends somewhat abruptly with the mutinous crew aboard the Potemkin coming to a grely-ous debacle in their enterprise. Out of the whole one gathers that here the red revolution of Russia started.

Bupplementing the major showing of the evening was a comedy of ancient vintage by Charles Chaplin, well selected in conformity to the expressed ideals of the management. It is titled "A Dogs Life." Two short numbers, "An Autopay on the Cinema." featuring the noblest dramatic intellects of the time, and "From Then to Now," a burleague charged to the account of Leonard Hall, of the Dally News, let in light upon the Little theater movement. An atmospheric overture upon the screen rounded out the program, accompanied throughout by an orchestra of intimate proportions.

CONGRESS HAS SESSION $784,208,080 IN ASSETS

Echoes of the Chicago election were voiced last night at the sessions of the national race congress in Mount Carmel Baptist church by Dr. J. C. Austin, of Chicago megroes, who participated in Tuesday's voting. He lauded the action of Chicago negroes, who refrained from rioting under various forms of incitament and "settled issues with the ballot." In speaking of Africa, he voiced the opinion that the greatest hope of the American negro lies in African redemption.

Dean Kelly Miller, of Howard university, addressed the congress on race distinctions and discriminations "in law and out of law." He urged organization to fight legalized discriminations and denounced the "timidity and cowardice" of negroes of various fouthern Risates who refrain from wielding the balloit, where no law prevents, solely because of intimidation.

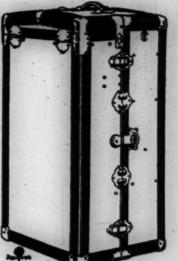

In discussing residential segregation he appealed to negroes of this city for neighborhood beautification and improvement in order that segregated areas occasioned by natural movement of population might not become ghettos. The afternoon session was addressed by Dr. Mark C. Hayford, fellow of the Royal Geographic society of the Royal Geographic so

One way to give a baby medicine is to give it to the mother. This is terefor only to the babies that are lucky enough to be breast fed. The bottle-fed babies will have to take their medicine in the same old way. There is even better news for the breast-fed babies. They can take their cod liver oil by the mother route. There are those who say that babies have no objection to taking cod liver oil. Maybe so. But if baby has no objection to oil, he should still be happy to learn that it can be left to mother, for it helps her as well.

There is a further advantage of the mother method. A large percentage of the babies that need cod liver oil do not get it early enough. In fact, many of to cause rickets in a baby that is drinking enough vitamines and of the right kind.

It is well to know that a mother can protect her baby against rickets by taking some cod liver oil during her pregnancy and continuing it while the baby is at the beast.

But this demonstration runs parallel with another one of even greater interest. Prevention of rickets by taking cod liver oil is important; prevention by exposure to sunlight and fresh air is still more important. Steenbock has shown that exposure of a cow to sunlight and even to the proper kind of artificial light will cause her milk to contain vitamines. That's why the milk from pastured cows is more wholesome than from stabled cows.

Oh. J. F., how foolish for you or any while I generally agree with your diagnosis of lover's troubles and remedy advised I can not let your remarks slip by in reference to men who fear marriage. I fully agree with them. Marriage is out of the question now-a-days by the majority of girls unless they can make an "advantageous marriage." That means money. By the time a young man earns and saves the amount of money to make for his wife an "advantageous" marriage the young man becomes middle aged. But, don't you think for one moment that in the process the young man will be perfectly dormant. He will have a few love affairs which will be ecstatic while they last. It is no difficult feat for him to lose the girl of the "affair" because she will quit him very soon to accept a chance with a fellow who is willing to go blindfolded into a "union." Another thing a girl knowing a divorce brands no one these days to diagrace or social ostracism. feels if the thing is not a success she can obtain a divorce and try another or live on alimony. In my day, a girl was afraid of a divorce. I object to your attitude toward men today. Believe me. I have lived, have had several beautiful romances and if I die tomorrow, the world owes me nothing. I would have married last year but the girl "jumped" to the chance of a millionaire, the homeliest and ugliest looking man of the universe, while I learned that all her life she adored the "Adonis" type. When customs are almost universally adopted by all sorts of people, it is hard to show the difference in good and bad form. Except by the manner in which the custom is followed, there is no way of testing its fitness. Just as no way of testing its fitness. Just as one woman may eat a great deal and do it daintily that she doesn't seem greedy, and another may eat very little and do it so awkwardly and noisily that she seems a giutton, so one girl may handle her make-up quietly and delicately and another may slap it on with vulgar ostentatiousness. better taste not to make up while at table. But perhaps I shall be confronted by the fact that at restaurants ands such places, if a woman is going directly to the theater (or anywhere else) and doesn't choose to take her turn at the dressing room mirror, she must make up at table or not at all. Suppose I say that whenever it is possible not to make the public a present of the secrets of your appearance, it is better not to. If you begin to rouge and powder and put on lip stick the very second you have finished eating, it has rather too informal, rather too practical an bad form, for I have seen too many charming women do it. I think it all depends upon whether it is prettily should advise against it in a private

NATS, BEATEN 6 TO 5, PLAY GIANTS HERE TODAY

Cleveland,

29 to 21

Tonight, of course, their performance appeared more brilliant than ever because of the importance attached to the contest, the victory gives the Celtics a distinct edge in the series, for the second game is to be played here and the third, and rest of the series if necessary will be played on their home court in Brooklyn.

The first half ended 14 to 14. In this period the New Yorkers also flashed one of their well-known railies to deadlock the score after the Rosenblums had taken a lead by 5 points at one stage.

ial to The Washington Post. TLEVELAND, Ohio, April 6.—Basket-ball news was fired with a resounding report from a double-arrelled gun here today when directors the American Professional basket-all league met in annual executive saion. The biggest player trade in the league's history, involving Washigton and Philadelphia and what gight be called a divorce of amateur nough.

and professional rules were put hrough. Six stars of professional basketball vere shifted by their owners, George Marshall, of Washington, and Jules aronson, of Philadelphia, as the result of a conference preceding the regular eague meeting. Without having utered a single word about the matter revious to today, the two club owners greed within fifteen minutes on a rade which sends George Glasco, forward; "Tillie" Voss, center, and Teddy Kearns, guard; from Washington to Philadelphia in exchange for Chick Passon, forward, "Stretch" Mechan, enter, and Harry Riconda, guard. And closely following on the heels of this unprecedented transaction the eague directors voted to define an original sit of playing rules for professional basketball, thus entirely eliminating the influence heretofore felt from the amateur sport.

Both owners and the other magnates here seemed to believe that the teams involved in the player trade derived mutual benefit.

In obtaining Passon, Meehan and Riconda, the Palace club has trengthened considerably on the offensive, especially so in the case of Passon, who finished the 1926-27 season third hi-hest in the individual scoring with a total of 367 points for 41 games.

Aronson pointed out that Kearns' services to Philadelphia should be almost invaluable, since he will team up with the player alongside of whom he flashed the best basketball of his career while playing for Trenton in the old Eastern league several years ago. That old buddy of Kearns is Tommy Barlow, the Quakers' husky guard. When this pair worked together at Trenton it was said then that no other two guards in the country could com-

W YORK, April 6.—The faithful customers of the New York Giants may need the advice of learned counsel to understand the great national game of baseball when the impending season begins, owing to the confusion over the peculiar dual nature of Rogers Hornsby, wage slave, and stockholder.

It develops that the Howsey was stockholder.

It develops that the Hornsby who owns the stock in the St. Louis Cardinals is one person, subject to one set of baseball laws and agreements, and that the one who works for John J. Linen King Scores by Nose Over Algol in Opener.

Ed Pendleton Barely Lasts to Capture Fourth Event.

sports Editor. The Post. Sports Editor. The Post.

T was a Tip Top day at Bowle. The benevolence of the weather man moved 10,000 fans to attend the program yesterday, and both form and long-shot players enjoyed their innings. Tip Top plac describes the Princeton handicap, the feature event of the day, for it was Mrs. Payne Whitney's 3-year-old filly of that name which won the race by a head in a tip-top finish at a tip-top price. A field of seven started in the 6-furlong race.

Contemplate, the favorite, was beaten in a driving finish by the Greentree filly, with the second choice, Artilleryman, a length farther back for third place.

Tip Top was always in a contending position and Watters let Pleasant Smiles and Contemplate cut out the early pace, laying third with the ultimate winner for most of the route. Pleasant Smiles folded up rounding the turn for home, and it was at this point in the race that Contemplate suffered ill luck.

that Contemplate suffered ill luck.

Swerving at the turn, Pleasant Smiles carried Contemplate to the outside, causing the latter to lose much ground, but Stott brought the Flamingo Farm entry to the center of the track again and drew out to a lead of more than two lengths. Watters, just a bit tardy with Tip Top, made his bid at the sixteenth pole and outgamed the tiring Contemplate to the finish.

The day started auspiciously for the long-shot players who pinned their faith on the Pastime stable's Linen King, which showed rare courage to win the 4-furlong dash for 2-year-olds by a nose from the McLean stable's Algol. Birdwood, the odds-on favorite, finished third not far back. Linen King was more than 12 fo 1 in the mutuels. Linen King got away poorly and was forced to go around the leaders turning into the stretch, Birdwood, on the rail, broke fast, closely followed by Algol. These two outdistanced the sixteenth pole Algol, with Lang up, had worn down Birdwood but was unable to withstand the determined rush of Linen King, which, under a hustling ride by Ellis, gained at every stride in the center of the track and nipped Algol at the wire.

The gelding Wild Aster, almost backed into favoritism, tow-roped his field in the later stages of the second race and was the winner, eased up, of the 6½-furlong race for older horses. The Seer was 2½ lengths back to take down second place, third going to Donetta, a long shot.

"Red" Harvey always rated Wild As in a contending position and for wed the pace closely as Lemons leepack. Wild Aster disposed to leader long before the stretch wached, with Washington hanging cith good courage. The stretch rules a roun for the winner with Ha

WINS OVER EASTERN

Lincoln Parkers Fail to Solve Korson; Score, 6-1.

Coach Silis' charges practically sewed up the victory in the fourth, when Clark, who had relieved Quinn, became unsteady and put Hartigan and Korson on the paths by his wildness. Kennedy came through in the pinch with a lusty triple to deep left that cleared the sacks. He, himself, counted a minute later on an infield out.

Korson, the slim pitcher of Devitt, who, in addition to his other fine traits, reposes in his pitching ability the utmost confidence, was master of the situation throughout. Twice Eastern seriously threatened, and twice the hopes of the home nine were blasted to shreds by the Devitt hurier.

Maseno opened the seventh with a looping Texas leaguer over short. Korson developed a streak of wildness and passed both Doerr and Hook to fill the bases. It was a ticklish situation, but Korson steadied down and struck out the next three batters to face him. Devitt. ABH 0 A [Eastern. time he gets his hands on it.

"Passon is also one of the best foul shots in the league and, although he may not have as many chances, next year as this, due to the new rules, he surely will prove a better man in sinking the one-pointers than any one of the men we sent to Philadelphia."

The new rules, according to Joe Carr, president of the league, will not be announced definitely at this time. However, it was decided that professional basketball must not be converted into foul-shooting contests, such as were inevitable when amateur rules were strictly enforced in the league, of faster action and exclude many of the insignificant fouls as called in amateur circles. Drafting of the professional doe will be done, probably within a month, Carr said.

It also was decided at the meeting to select four or five referees at the start of the next season and pay them by the month. The league this year hired nearly fifteen different officials on a per game basis.

CENTRAL DEFEATS MARYLAND FRESHMET

Stevens Fans 8 of 10 to Face Him

Duffy Also Impresses on Mound; Phipps Is Injured.

Contest Is Close Until Sixth Inning; Simmons Stars.

SHOWING surprising form behind the excellent pitching of Stevens and Duffy and assailing three pitchers for a total of twelve hits. Central High School scored a 12-5 victory over the Maryland Preshmen at College Park yesterday.

The game was a closely contested affair until the sixth inning. Phipps, who had started for Maryland, was holding Central well, but was forced to leave the game in the last half of the fifth when he injured his ankle sliding into second base. The score at the time stood 3 to 2 against him, and Bassett and Bobalitz who, in turn succeeded him, were assailed vigorously by the Central batters who garnered the remaining ten runs off the pair in addition to eight hits.

The Central pitchers at times were well-nigh invincible. Dufy breezed through six innings, allowing but six hits, while Stevens proved the sensation of the game, by taking the mound the last three frames to have but ten men face him, striking eight of the ten out, walking one, while the other man reached first on an error.

Duffy held Maryland scoreless until the fifth inning when they managed to tally two runs, duplicating the feat in the sixth and adding their last marker in the ninth.

Before Phipps left the game Central had gotten to him for four hits and three runs, and immediately pounced upon Bassett, his successor, to pount in one run in each the sixth and severath innings and three in the eighth, on a total of four hits. Bobalitz, who was sent in to replace Bassett in the ninth, was pounded for four hits and five runs.

While the game was sensational in spots, it was also slow, due to the poor condition of the playing field because of recent rains. However, only three errors were made, two being charged to Central.

SAINTS MEET WESTERN TODAY

Game Marks Debut for Ahearn Nine: Preps vs. Devitt.

WESTERN HIGH school will open its regular schedule today, meeting St. Alban's off the ister's diamond, while the second baseball clash of the day will be furnished by Devitt and Georgetown Prep, the game to be played at Carrett Park. Eastern and the Keane Seniors and Business and the Arcadian Seniors will meet in practice games on the Eastern field.

field.

Western has engaged in several practice games, but against St. Alban's they meet stiffer opposition. St. Alman's took one District high school to camp, defeating Tech, 9 to 8, but suffered defeat Monday against Forest Park High of Baltimore, 8 to 4.

It is expected that Snyder, with Bates held in reserve, will draw the pitching assignment for Western, with Wilson catching. The remainder of the line-up will be Q. Owens at first, Wolcott at second, Stevens at short and Loney at third, with the outfield composed of Walker, F. Owens and Capt. Norman Hilleary.

G. Fletcher and Weaver will be St. Alban's hattery, with Francis at the initial sack, Bowles at second, Hunt at short and Ashworth at third. Crouch will be in left field and C. Fletcher in center and Water or Manning may go to right field if G. Fletcher starts on the mound. Manning, however, may be the pitching choice, as he is anxious to atone for the beating Baltimore gave him.

Devitt will have either Korson or Bowling to pitch against Georgetown Prep and Hartigan, Devitt's mainstay, will catch. Fisher, Head, Kennedy and Garrett will compose the infield, with Porter, Bilkovic and either Bowling or Korson in the outfield.

Georgetown Prep will present much the same line-up as it did against Tech, pesterday. Both McCaffrey and McCann were called into service against Tech, and it is doubtful which one will start against Devitt. Watkin will do the receiving.

The Eastern-T. T. Keane game will be played on the Eastern field. Joe Preschi, ace of the Keanes, probably will draw the twirling assignment. The Keane players are requested to report at the stadium at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Heydier indulged in much conversation, the bill for which is sufficient refutation of the theory that talk is inexpensive.

Speaking to both of the Hornabys

Mr. Heydier urged the stockholder to

"Can't we compromise this matter?"
Mr. Heydier persisted.

"See our attorneys" said the stockholder and ball player.

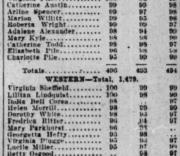

It is reported, though, that Hornabyto the stockholder, was willing to recede a few dollars from his asking price of the Sam Breadon, proprietor of the St.

This was like asking Mr. Ban

Half the proceeds will be used to construct a railroad from Beigrade to the Adriatic. Japanese 6½s were in moderate demand at slightly improved prices.

Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corporation

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Corporation was formed late in 1923 as a result of a court order that 1923 as a result of a court order that the coal and railroad properties, formerly controlled by the Reading Co., be segregated. The new company owns 85,000 acres of coal lands and controls 13,000 additional acres which have an estimated unmined tonnage of nearly 2,000,000,000 tons of anthracite coal—representing one-third of the total supply of hard coal in the entire country. The company's iron activities consist of the production of wrought iron pipes, boiler tubes, heavy machinery, cut nails and the marketing of pig iron and iron ore.

and the marketing of pig iron and iron ore.

Operations of the corporation resulted in a net profit of over $4,000,000 in 1923 and one of approximately $1,-000,000 reported in 1924. Operations in 1925 resulted in a deficit as a consequence of the anthracite coal strike, but it has been stated that 1926 results showed a noticeable improvement. At the time of last report the company had current assets which were approximately 6½ times as large as current liabilities. Funded debt consists of a $30,000,000 mortgage bond issue. There is no preferred stock outstanding. On the capital stock there have been no dividends paid as yet by the new company.

Cumberland, Md., April 6.—The first actual move by Alleghany county toward erecting a bridge over the Potomac river between Kifer, this county, and Pawpaw, W. Va., to connect the West Virginia hard-surface road system and avoid the five mountains east of here on the National highway, was made today when the road directors appropriated $5,000 for the building of the abutment on the Maryland side.

arette and within a few minutes the ship on which De Pinedo had lavished ship on which De Pinedo had lavished such care was a mass of flames. James Gibson, one of several boys who were in the boat from which the match was thrown, was located tonight. Young Gibson said that the boy who threw the match into the oil-covered water was a stranger, and that he and the strange boy had been quarreling over a lighted cigarette. It was during the argument, he said, that "the other boy threw the match away."

Workers at Roosevelt dam and employes of Apache lodge, who witnessed the boys' quarrel, said they did not recognize the one who threw the match into the water. A search for him is being made.

Commander de Pinedo tonight stood on the banks of the huge mountain Commander de Pinedo tonight stood on the banks of the huge mountain reservoir in a foreign land, and gazing across the placid waters which gave no sign of a tragedy enacted a few hours before, calmly announced that he would obtain another plane and continue his tour. He said he would resume the flight from Lake Roosevelt though he did not know where the new plane would be assembled.

Everything was in readiness for the departure of the commander on the Apache Lodge—San Diego leg of his journey when the Santa Maria burst into flames.

The aviator was bidding good-by to friends on the shore as the match struck the oil coated water. A flash and it had communicated to the plane. As the ship burst into flames from stem to stern, Capt. del Prete, and Shir's Mechanic M. Feenbert traverd.

Senator Confers at Length With Commissioners on Local Problems.

PROPOSES INCREASED AUTHORITY FOR BOARD

Blanton and A. A. A. Officials Hold Long Secret Session With City Heads.

Senator William H. King, of Utah, ranking Democratic member of the Senate District committee, held a long conference with the District commissioners yesterday, at which were canvassed many policies of local administration. The senator said that he recommended to the commissioners that the traffic bureau be placed under the police department as a bureau instead of being independent as at present. This said to be in line with recommendations that will be made by the bureau of efficiency in its final report on the traffic signal scandal investigation. He expressed himself as favorace to increasing the powers of the commissioners, so as to relieve Congress of small details of local government. He also discussed traction merger and revision of fiscal relations between the District and Federal governments. Senator King intends to devote three weeks to a study of District affairs.

There was considerable discussion in the District building yesterday over a secret session held Tuesday by the commissioners, Representatives Thomas L. Blanton and E. W. Gibson, George W. Offutt, head of the local branch of the American Automobile association, and Theodore P. Noyes.

The commissioners would not discuss the conference, even refusing to answer questions about it, although it was admittedly about the transaction of public business.

Blanton is said to have taken the initiative in calling the meeting, the topic of which is said to have been an appeal to the commissioners by friends of Assistant Director of Traffic M. O. Elidridge to have the latter reinstated as director of traffic, from which post he was demoted following the traffic signal scandal probe.

William P. Richards, District tax assessor, yesterday defended his new valuation of real estate for purposes of assessment against the attack made on it Tuesday evening by a resolution of the board of directors of the Washington Chamber of Commerce.

"Our valuations are merely echoes of community values placed on property by sellers and buyers," he said. "It has been three years since we have had an assessed valuation based on sales. In the meantime prices have been climbing and there have been buildings erected to the combined value of $100,-000,000. Building values are reflected in ground values. The problem confronting Director Frank T. Hines, of the veterans bureau, as to what means shall be taken to insure a sufficient fund for making loans to veterans, has been solved, it was learned yesterday.

Acting Secretary of the Treasury Mills said that, in case additional funds, beyond the moneys that accrue each month to the government life insurance fund, are needed to advance loans to veterans, such funds will be provided by the temporary sale of bonds that now belong to the life insurance fund.

Before the veterans' loan matter presented difficulties through the refusal of banks to make loans, the Secretary of the Treasury had invested moneys belonging to the life insurance fund in bonds and other securities.

Mr. Mills said that a sufficient number of the bonds could be sold temporarily to advantage, and could be repurchased. It would merely be a matter of reinvestment, he said.

It was indicated therefore that it would not be necessary for the veterans bureau to request from Comptroller General McCarl a reconsideration of the matter of transferring to the life insurance fund $25,000,000 from the bonus certificate fund, since sufficient moneys for loans could be insured in this manner.

Patrols Lauded by Ballou.

Requested by the District commissioners to submit an opinion on the continuance of schoolboy patrols, because of accidents to two of the students enrolled, the board unanimously opposed termination of the project. Reading letters in support of his state-ments, Dr. Ballou told the members he believed the patrol of real value, both in protecting classmates from passing motorists, and affording training in motorists, and affording training in responsibility.

The board upheld the suspension of Miss Adella Parks, of the Mott school, "for conduct unbecoming a teacher," although it offered her a "trial" after hearing her petition for the lifting of the suspension.

In a statement issued following disposition of the case, and approved by the board, President Charles F. Carusi directed that teachers in all the schools be informed that the board of education is in no sense a court, and may suspend a teacher without proving her guilt after the manner of a court of law.
